

Survey on safety culture – questions

Section	Question
Conditions for working safely	I receive the instructions and guidance I need to do the work safely.
	Workplace safety rules and regulations are easy to understand and follow.
	I have the right skills to work safely.
	I have enough time to work safely.
	I have the right equipment to work safely.
	I can point out failures in safety without risking negative consequences.
Safe employeeship	We help each other to work safely even during stressful periods.
	When we see someone taking risks at work, we tell them.
	We show appreciation when someone works safely.
	Those of us who work here take each other's opinions and suggestions regarding safety seriously.
Safe leadership	My line manager shows appreciation when I work safely.
	My line manager reminds me to follow the safety rules even in situations where we're under pressure.
	My line manager listens and takes action when I tell them about failures in safety.
	My line manager makes sure we talk about safe behaviours and how to avoid accidents.
Management involvement	Management encourages employees to work safely even during periods when schedules are tight.
	Management involves employees in decisions related to safety.
	Management behaviour shows that safety is always a top priority.
	I consider that the ambition of reducing accidents is a permanent component of our daily work.
	Management ensures that measures are taken to remedy the safety risks identified.